

Privacy Statement

1. SperaÂ Advocaten respects the privacy of all visitors of the current website. All information submitted by visitors will be treated confidentially, also by third parties responsible for the security of data storage. We will use your data in order to process your request for information, for the purpose you have submitted the data. The contact form will be directly send to our webmaster, who will ensure that the information provided reaches the appropriate person in our organisation.
2. In order to optimise our website, the IP-address and the data applicable to your visit will be registered by making use of cookies.
3. You have the right to request the information we have received from you. If necessary, this information may be corrected upon request.
- 4.Â For more information on your privacy policy, please contact info@advocatenkantoorSpera.nl .